3 Defendants.

4
5 Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”), for its Complaint alleges:

6
7 1. The FTC brings this action under Section 13(b) of the Federal Trade
8 Commission Act (“FTC Act”), 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), the Telemarketing and
9 Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act (“Telemarketing Act”), 15 U.S.C. §§
10 6101-6108, and the 2009 Omnibus Appropriations Act, Public Law 111-8, Section
11 626, 123 Stat. 524, 678 (Mar. 11, 2009) (“Omnibus Act”), as clarified by the 12 Credit Card Accountability Responsibility and Disclosure Act of 2009, Public Law
13 111-24, Section 511, 123 Stat. 1734, 1763-64 (May 22, 2009) (“Credit Card Act”),
14 and amended by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection
15 Act, Public Law 111-203, Section 1097, 124 Stat. 1376, 2102-03 (July 21, 2010)
16 (“Dodd-Frank Act”), 12 U.S.C. § 5538, to obtain temporary, preliminary, and 17 permanent injunctive relief, rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the 18 refund of monies paid, disgorgement of ill-gotten monies, and other equitable relief
19 for Defendants’ acts or practices in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15
20 U.S.C. § 45(a), the FTC’s Telemarketing Sales Rule (“TSR”), 16 C.F.R. Part 310,
21 and the Mortgage Assistance Relief Services Rule (“MARS Rule” or “Regulation
22 O”), 12 C.F.R. Part 1015, formerly codified as 16 C.F.R. Part 322, in connection
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 with their deceptive marketing and sale of student loan debt relief and mortgage
2 assistance relief services.

3
4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§
6 1331, 1337(a), and 1345, and 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a), 53(b), 6102(c), 6105(b), and 7
8 Section 626 of the Omnibus Act, as clarified by Section 511 of the Credit Card
9 Act, and amended by Section 1097 of the Dodd-Frank Act, 12 U.S.C. § 5538.

10 3. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1), (b)(2), 11 (c)(1), (c)(2), and (d), and 15 U.S.C. § 53(b).

12
13 PLAINTIFF

14 4. The FTC is an independent agency of the United States Government
15 created by statute. 15 U.S.C. §§ 41-58. The FTC enforces Section 5(a) of the FTC
16 Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), which prohibits unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or
17 affecting commerce. The FTC also enforces the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. §§
18 6101-6108. Pursuant to the Telemarketing Act, the FTC promulgated and enforces
19 the TSR, 16 C.F.R. Part 310, which prohibits deceptive and abusive telemarketing
20 acts or practices in or affecting commerce. Pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 5538, the FTC
21 also enforces the MARS Rule (Regulation O), which requires mortgage assistance
22 relief services (“MARS”) providers to make certain disclosures, prohibits certain 23 representations, and generally prohibits the collection of an advance fee.

1 7. Defendant Stream Lined Marketing (“Stream Lined”) is a Wyoming
2 corporation that has stated in public documents that 21900 Burbank Blvd.,
3 Woodland Hills, CA 91317 is its principal address. Stream Lined incorporated in 4 California in November 2012 and in Wyoming in October 2016. Stream Lined
5 transacts or has transacted business in this district and throughout the United 6 States. At all times material to this Complaint, acting alone or in concert with 7 others, or as part of the common enterprise described in paragraph 10, Stream
8 Lined has advertised, marketed, offered to provide, sold, or provided student loan
9 debt relief services and mortgage assistance relief services to consumers
10 throughout the United States.
11
12
13
14

15 8. Defendant Bloom Law Group P.C. (“Bloom Law”) is a California
16 professional corporation that has stated in public documents that 21900 Burbank
17 Blvd., Woodland Hills, CA 91317 is its principal executive office and principal
18 business office. Bloom Law transacts or has transacted business in this district and 19 throughout the United States. At all times material to this Complaint, acting alone
20 or in concert with others, or as part of the common enterprise described in 21 paragraph 10, Bloom Law has advertised, marketed, offered to provide, sold, or 22 provided student loan debt relief services and mortgage assistance relief services to 23 consumers throughout the United States.
24
25
26
27
28

1 9. Defendant Homan Ardalan (“Ardalan”) is the CEO, Secretary, and
2 CFO of A1, and has been the CEO, Secretary, CFO, Director, and Registered
3 Agent of Stream Lined until at least January 2017. Ardalan registered several 4 websites associated with the practices alleged in this complaint, including but not
5 limited to A1docprep.com, Projectupliftstudents.org, Projectupliftamerica.org,
6 Thebloomlawgroup.com, Keepyourhomeusa.org, Rodeolawgroup.com,
7 Westfieldlawgroup.com, and Homeshieldnetwork.org. Ardalan is a signatory on
8 A1, Stream Lined, and Bloom Law Group’s depository bank accounts. Ardalan
9 obtained A1’s merchant account for processing credit card payments and serves as 10 the company contact for A1 and Bloom Law Group’s telecommunications. At all 11 times material to this Complaint, acting alone or in concert with others, he has 12 formulated, directed, controlled, had the authority to control, or participated in the 13 acts and practices of A1, Stream Lined, and Bloom Law Group, including the acts
14 and practices set forth in this Complaint. Ardalan resides in this district and, in 15 connection with the matters alleged herein, transacts or has transacted business in 16 this district and throughout the United States.

17
18
19
20
21
22
23 10. Defendants A1, Stream Lined, and Bloom Law Group (collectively, 24 “Corporate Defendants”) have operated as a common enterprise while engaging in 25 the deceptive acts and practices and other violations of law alleged below.
26 Defendants have conducted the business practices described below through an 27
28

1 interrelated network of companies that have common ownership or managers, and
2 that have commingled funds. For example, Ardalan controls funds in each of the 3 corporate defendants' bank accounts, and bank records show consistent, substantial
4 payments from both A1 and Bloom Law Group accounts to Stream Lined's
5 corporate account. Because these Corporate Defendants have operated as a
6 common enterprise, each of them is jointly and severally liable for the acts and
7 practices alleged below. Defendant Ardalan has formulated, directed, controlled,
8 had the authority to control, or participated in the acts and practices of the 9 Corporate Defendants that constitute the common enterprise.
10
12

14
15 11. At all times material to this Complaint, Defendants have maintained a 16 substantial course of trade in or affecting commerce, as "commerce" is defined in 17 Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.
18

19 DEFENDANTS' DECEPTIVE STUDENT LOAN DEBT RELIEF AND 20 MORTGAGE ASSISTANCE RELIEF OPERATION

21
22 12. Since at least May 2016, Defendants have operated an unlawful debt
23 relief enterprise that preys on consumers with student loan debt. Defendants have 24 lured consumers with text messages and telephone calls that falsely purport to be
25 from the U.S. Department of Education ("ED") offering time-limited participation
26 in forgiveness programs. Defendants promise to reduce consumers' monthly
27
28

1 payments and eliminate all or a portion of their student loan debt through
2 enrollment in student loan forgiveness or income-driven repayment programs. In
3 many instances, however, consumers have discovered that Defendants failed to
4 obtain debt forgiveness or monthly payment reductions. In fact, some consumers
5 have owed more on their student loans after enrolling in Defendants' program.
6

7
8 13. Since at least October 2015, Defendants also have operated a similar
9 scheme in which they market mortgage assistance relief services to financially
10 distressed homeowners. Defendants claim that they have a very high success rate,
11 including, in some instances, that they have a 98% success rate, in obtaining 12 mortgage loan modifications and preventing foreclosures, and that consumers will
13 receive expert legal representation. In numerous instances, however, Defendants 14 fail to obtain the promised loan modifications and do not provide any legal 15 representation to consumers. In some instances, consumers' homes have been 16 foreclosed after consumers signed up for Defendants' assistance with their 17 mortgages.
18
19
20
21

22 14. In exchange for the promised student loan debt relief and mortgage
23 assistance relief services, Defendants have charged illegal upfront fees of as much
24 as $4,500.
25
26
27
28

Background on Student Loan Forgiveness and Repayment Programs

1
2 15. Student loan debt is the second largest class of consumer debt; more
3 than 42 million Americans collectively owe nearly $1.3 trillion. The student loan
4 market shows elevated levels of distress relative to other types of consumer debt.
5

6 16. To address this mounting level of distressed debt, ED and state
7 government agencies administer a limited number of student loan forgiveness and
8 discharge programs. Most consumers, however, are not eligible for these programs
9 because of strict eligibility requirements. For example, one program requires the 10 consumer to demonstrate a total and permanent disability; another applies only to 11 consumers whose school closed while the consumer was still enrolled. A third
12 program, the Borrower Defense to Repayment (“BDR”), may provide a loan
13 discharge if the school, through an act or omission, violated state law directly 14 related to the borrower’s federal student loan or to the educational services for 15 which the loan was provided.
16
17
18
19

20 17. Other forgiveness programs require working in certain professions for 21 a period of years. Teacher Loan Forgiveness applies to teachers who have worked 22 full-time for five years in a low-income elementary or secondary school or 23 educational service agency. Public Service Loan Forgiveness (“PSLF”) applies to 24 employees of governmental units or non-profit organizations who make timely
25 monthly payments for a period of ten years while employed in the public sector.
26
27
28

1 18. The federal government also offers loan forgiveness through income-
2 driven repayment (“IDR”) programs that enable borrowers to reduce their monthly
3 payments and have portions of their loans forgiven. No loans have been forgiven
4 yet under any of the IDR programs. IDR programs allow eligible borrowers to 5 limit their monthly payments based on a percentage of their discretionary monthly
6 income. To remain in an IDR program, borrowers must recertify their income and 7 family size annually. Obtaining forgiveness through IDR programs requires a
8 minimum of 20 or 25 years of qualifying payments.
9
10

11
12 19. Because a borrower’s income is likely to fluctuate over the life of the 13 loan, monthly payments under the IDR programs can vary considerably from year
14 to year. If a borrower’s income were to increase over the repayment period, for 15 example, the monthly payment amount could correspondingly increase to the point
16 where those payments would pay off the loan before any amount could be forgiven
17 at the end of the repayment term.
18

19
20 20. Consumers can apply for BDR, PSLF, IDR, and other loan repayment
21 and forgiveness or discharge programs through ED or their student loan servicers
22 at no cost; these programs do not require the assistance of a third-party company or 23 payment of application fees.
24
25
26
27
28

1 21. ED will grant forbearance while processing applications for an
2 alternative repayment plan, and in some cases of hardship. During forbearance,
3 unpaid interest is added to the principal balance.
4

5 22. Both private financial institutions and the federal government fund
6 student loans. The William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans Program (“Direct
7 Loans”) is the largest “federal” loan program, one where the lender is the U.S.
8 Department of Education, as opposed to a private bank or lender.
9

10 Defendants’ Deceptive Marketing of Student Loan Debt Relief Services
11

12 23. To lure consumers into purchasing their purported student loan debt
13 relief services, Defendants have engaged in two unlawful practices, making: (1)
14 false claims that they are or are affiliated with the federal government, including 15 the Department of Education; and (2) false promises to eliminate or reduce 16 consumers’ student loan balances or monthly payments through loan forgiveness
17 or other programs.
18

19 24. Defendants make outbound telemarketing calls and send texts to 20 consumers to offer their services and convince student loan borrowers to sign up
21 with the company. In some instances, consumers view the Defendants’ website or 22 online advertising and call Defendants’ telemarketers for more information.
23
25
26
27
28

1 25. Defendants have claimed to be the Department of Education in their
2 advertisements. For example, Defendants have left the following telephone
3 message on consumers' phones:
4

5 This message is from the Department of Education. In regards to
6 Donald Trump becoming President, all programs for student loan
7 forgiveness will be stopped immediately as soon as he takes office
8 in January. In order for you to qualify, you must apply within the 9 next 24 hours or you will not be able to have your student loan
10 payment reduced. Please contact us at [toll free number]. The 11 number again is [toll free number]. Once again, you must get
12 involved within the next 24 hours. Thank you.
13
15

16 26. Defendants have also falsely represented to consumers that they are 17 affiliated with Direct Loans. For example, one of Defendants' email
18 communications to one consumer bears the header: "William D. Ford Federal 19 Direcr (sic) Loans."
20

21 27. Contrary to Defendants' representations, Defendants are not the 22 Department of Education or vetted, approved, or affiliated with the federal 23 government or any government program.
24

26 28. Defendants have also sent text messages to consumers that typically 27 promote the benefits of loan forgiveness and invoke false and urgent warnings that 28

1 a consumer's opportunity to obtain loan forgiveness is about to expire, for
2 example:

3 Your student loans may be completely forgiven if they
4 meet the guidelines- Find out in minutes. Call 888-339-
5 7142 or Reply STOP to opt-out
6

7
8 and

9 Your Student loan may be forgiven today, but Donald
10 Trump may stop that call now at 888-307-0680 Reply
11 STOP to opt-out
12

13 29. In numerous instances, Defendants have described themselves as 14 being or being affiliated with non-profit student advocacy organizations.
15 Defendants have operated a website that bolsters their student advocacy
16 representations at projectupliftstudents.org. Under the heading "Why We Do It,"
17 this website states "We believe many Americans are unable to pay thier (sic)
18 student loans and still be able to afford to live their lives comfortably. That is the 19 sole reason this organization was founded to put an end to your student loan
20 nightmare and finally have you placed in a payment that is affordable to you."
21
22

23 30. Defendants also have operated a website at A1docprep.com where 24 they purport to provide "Document Preparation and Consulting services to 25
26
27
28

1 consumers who are seeking to consolidate their Federal Student Loans into one
2 loan and enroll into an affordable and manageable monthly payment.”

3
4 31. In calls with consumers, Defendants’ telemarketers have told
5 consumers that Defendants can reduce loan balances, or that consumers’ loan
6 balances would be forgiven after making lower monthly payments. For example,
7 Defendants stated during a recorded call with an undercover investigator with 8 $40,000 in student loan debts that “you’re going to pay back $21,019.20 and 9 you’re going to be forgiven for the rest.” Some consumers were told that over half
10 their loan balance would be forgiven.
11
12

13 32. In many instances, Defendants have failed to obtain the promised
14 lower monthly payments or student loan forgiveness.
15

16 33. In numerous instances, Defendants have represented that the 17 payments for their services were “installments.” For example, in one recorded 18 telephone call Defendants stated: “Now, your first five installments, we spread into 19 five different months consecutively for $300. After that, you’re going to drop
20 down to $82.58 for the remainder of your term.” Consumers typically understood
21 that their payments would go towards their student loans.
22
23

24 34. In fact, Defendants do not apply the initial monthly “installments” to 25 consumers’ student loans; rather, these initial payments, typically for the first three 26 to five months, are kept as fees for Defendants’ services.
27
28

1 35. Defendants have charged consumers fees for purported debt relief
2 services before achieving any results, and, in many instances, have failed to
3 achieve any results at all on behalf of the consumers. Defendants' total advance
4 fees have typically been in the range of $900-$1,500. Defendants' telemarketers
5 typically have obtained consumers' payment information on the initial phone call.
6

7
8 36. In many instances, Defendants have e-mailed consumers a link to a
9 contract to sign electronically. Defendants typically have pressured consumers
10 into quickly electronically signing the contract while the telemarketer is still on the 11 phone. Buried in the contract document is language at odds with the statements in 12 Defendants' advertisements and telephone communications with consumers:
13 "Client understands and acknowledges the fact that A1DocPrep is only a document
14 preparation company and is in no way guaranteeing or promising consolidation;"
15 and "A1 DocPrep is NOT affiliated in any manner with the Department of 16 Education or any other academic or governmental entity." In many instances,
17 consumers were rushed through the contract and did not read the above language.
18 In those instances where consumers read and asked Defendants about the 19 contract's statements that A1 is not the Department of Education, Defendants
20 provided multiple reassurances over the telephone. In other instances, consumers
21 did not sign the contract and discovered later that Defendants had signed their 22 name electronically.
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 37. In some instances, when consumers have contacted Defendants to
2 cancel their enrollment in Defendants' program, Defendants have told consumers
3 that they could suffer adverse credit consequences if they cancel. In many
4 instances, Defendants have refused or ignored requests for refunds by consumers.
5

6 Defendants' False Promises to Provide Mortgage Assistance Relief

7
8 38. Defendants also have made false promises to obtain mortgage loan
9 modifications for consumers through advertisements on websites and telephone
10 calls to consumers.
11

12 39. For example, the home page of one of Defendants' websites,
13 keepyourhomeusa.org, has listed a number of mortgage assistance relief benefits
14 under "What We Have Achieved":
15

- 16 • Principle (sic) Balance Reduction
- 17 • Past Payment Forgiveness
- 18 • Capitalization of Arrears
- 19 • 2% Interest Rates
- 20 • House Free And Clear
- 21 • Settlements
- 22
- 23
- 24

25 This homepage has further stated: "Contact Us For a Free Consultation."
26 The website does not disclose that Keep Your Home USA "is not associated with 27 the government, and their service is not approved by the government or your 28

1 lender,” nor does the website state “Even if you accept this offer and use our
2 service, your lender may not agree to change your loan.”

3 40. Defendants have conducted outbound telephone calls to consumers
4 using the business names of “Home Shield Network,” “Keep Your Home USA,”
5 or “Legal Network Group.”
6

7 41. Defendants have typically referred consumers to one of several 8 purported law firms, including Bloom Law Group, using statements such as “they
9 are really good at getting clients loan modifications,” and “they have a 98%
10 success rate for modifications.”
11

12 42. In numerous instances, Defendants have falsely stated that they 13 worked for a government program or a “state funded program.” For example,
14 Defendants’ representative stated in a call with one consumer that “he would not 15 get paid for anything for referring [the consumer to Bloom Law Group] because he 16 was an advocate for the state.”
17

18 43. In numerous instances, Defendants have stated they would obtain a 19 loan modification for consumers, help consumers stay in their homes, and lower 20 their mortgage payments.
21

22 44. In numerous instances, Defendants have told consumers not to
23 communicate with their mortgage servicer and to refer any calls from their servicer
24 to Bloom Law Group.
25
26
27
28

1 45. In numerous instances, Defendants’ representatives from “Home
2 Shield Network” or other purported public assistance programs have instructed
3 consumers they must pay a fee by cashier’s check, typically $900, to Bloom Law
4 Group before Bloom Law Group will send any retainer agreement or paperwork to 5 the consumer. During these consumer-specific commercial communications,
6 Defendants have not provided any of the following disclosures: (1) “You may stop
7 doing business with us at any time. You may accept or reject the offer of mortgage
8 assistance we obtain from your lender [or servicer]. If you reject the offer, you do
9 not have to pay us [insert amount or method of calculating amount] for our
10 services;” (2) “[Company] is not associated with the government, and our service
11 is not approved by the government or your lender;” (3) “Even if you accept this 12 offer and use our service, your lender may not agree to change your loan;” and (4)
13 “If you stop paying your mortgage, you could lose your home and damage your 14 credit.”
15
16
17
18
19

20 46. Defendants have operated a website at thebloomlawgroup.com that 21 states “Bloom Law Group assists homeowners in their struggle against predatory
22 mortgage lending and wrongful foreclosures.” This website has promoted a
23 “Litigation Preparation Program” where “a homeowner can get relief through a
24 change in interest rate and/or principal balance.” This website does not include the 25 disclosure that Defendants are “not associated with the government, and our 26
27
28

1 service is not approved by the government or your lender,” nor does the website
2 state “Even if you accept this offer and use our service, your lender may not agree
3 to change your loan.”
4

5 47. Defendants typically have had a purported paralegal from Bloom Law
6 Group contact consumers and email them a “Litigation Preparation Program
7 Package” containing several documents, including an “Attorney-Client Pro Bono
8 Legal Agreement.”
9

10 48. Despite the “pro bono” attorney client legal agreement, over the next
11 several months, the “Home Shield Network,” “Keep Your Home USA,” or “Legal 12 Network Group” representative that originally referred the consumer to Bloom
13 Law Group has typically contacted the consumer and claimed it was time for the 14 consumer to make an additional payment to Bloom Law Group. Defendants 15 typically collect a total of approximately $4,500 in fees, spread over several 16 monthly payments.
17
18
19

20 49. In numerous instances, Defendants have requested or received
21 payment of fees before the consumer has executed a written agreement with the 22 consumer’s dwelling loan holder or servicer that incorporates the offer of mortgage
23 assistance relief Defendants obtained, if at all, from the consumer’s dwelling loan
24 holder or servicer.
25
26
27
28

1 50. In numerous instances, consumers who enrolled with Bloom Law
2 Group have never spoken or met with an attorney. All correspondence from the
3 Bloom Law Group is typically signed by the same purported attorney, who is not
4 barred in or licensed to practice in most consumers' various states of residence.
5

6 51. In numerous instances, Defendants have failed to obtain a loan
7 modification, principal reduction, or other relief to stop foreclosure or make 8 consumers' mortgage payments affordable. In some instances, Defendants have 9 changed the contact information for consumers with their lenders, thereby
10 preventing consumers from receiving critical foreclosure notices. Some consumers
11 have lost their homes in foreclosure after enrolling with Defendants.
12
13

14 Defendants' Unlawful Calls to Consumers on the National

15 Do Not Call Registry

16
17 52. In numerous instances, Defendants have placed over 150,000
18 outbound telemarketing calls to consumers who are listed on the National Do Not
19 Call Registry. Defendants have placed such calls to area codes without paying the 20 required annual fee for access to the telephone numbers within that area code that 21 are included in the National Do Not Call Registry.
22
23

24 THE FTC ACT

25
26 53. Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), prohibits "unfair or 27 deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce."
28

1 54. Misrepresentations or deceptive omissions of material fact constitute
2 deceptive acts or practices prohibited by Section 5(a) of the FTC Act.

3 VIOLATIONS OF THE FTC ACT

4 Count I

5 Deceptive Student Loan Debt Relief Representations

6
7 55. In numerous instances, in connection with the advertising, marketing,
8 promotion, offering for sale, or sale of student loan debt relief services, Defendants 9 have represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication that:
10

- 11
12 a. Defendants are part of or affiliated with the government,
13 government loan programs, or the Department of Education; and 14
15 b. Consumers who purchase Defendants’ debt relief services
16 generally will have their monthly payments reduced or their loan
17 balances forgiven in whole or in part.
18

19 56. In truth and in fact, in numerous instances in which Defendants have 20 made the representations set forth in Paragraph 55 of this Complaint, such 21 representations were false or not substantiated at the time Defendants made them.
22

23 57. Therefore, Defendants’ representations as set forth in Paragraph 55 of 24 this Complaint are false or misleading and constitute deceptive acts or practices in 25 violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).
26

Count II

Deceptive Mortgage Assistance Relief Representations

58. In numerous instances, in connection with the advertising, marketing, promotion, offering for sale, or sale of mortgage assistance relief services, Defendants have represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication that:

- a. Defendants are part of or affiliated with the government, or government programs; and
- b. Defendants would generally obtain a loan modification for consumers that would make their payments substantially more affordable or help them avoid foreclosure.

59. In truth and in fact, in numerous instances in which Defendants have made the representations set forth in Paragraph 58 of this Complaint, such representations were false or not substantiated at the time Defendants made them.

60. Therefore, the making of the representations as set forth in Paragraph 58 of this Complaint constitutes a deceptive act or practice in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

THE TELEMARKETING SALES RULE

61. Congress directed the FTC to prescribe rules prohibiting abusive and deceptive telemarketing acts or practices pursuant to the Telemarketing Act, 15

1 U.S.C. §§ 6101-6108. The FTC adopted the original TSR in 1995, extensively
2 amended it in 2003, and amended certain provisions thereafter. 16 C.F.R. Part 3 310.
4

5 62. Defendants are “seller[s]” or “telemarketer[s]” engaged in
6 “telemarketing” as defined by the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(dd), (ff), and (gg). A
7 “seller” means any person who, in connection with a telemarketing transaction,
8 provides, offers to provide, or arranges for others to provide goods or services to a
9 customer in exchange for consideration. 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(dd). A “telemarketer”
10 means any person who, in connection with telemarketing, initiates or receives
11 telephone calls to or from a customer or donor. 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(ff).
12

14 “Telemarketing” means a plan, program, or campaign which is conducted to 15 induce the purchase of goods or services or a charitable contribution, by use of one
16 or more telephones and which involves more than one interstate telephone call. 16
17 C.F.R. § 310.2(gg).
18
19

20 63. Defendants are sellers or telemarketers of “debt relief services” as 21 defined by the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(o). Under the TSR, a “debt relief service”
22 means any program or service represented, directly or by implication, to 23 renegotiate, settle, or in any way alter the terms of payment or other terms of the 24 debt between a person and one or more unsecured creditors, including, but not 25
26
27
28

1 limited to, a reduction in the balance, interest rate, or fees owed by a person to an
2 unsecured creditor or debt collector. 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(o).

3
4 64. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from requesting or 5 receiving payment of any fees or consideration for any debt relief service until and 6 unless:

- 7
- 8 a. The seller or telemarketer has renegotiated, settled, reduced, or 9 otherwise altered the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a
10 settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other such 11 valid contractual agreement executed by the customer; and
 - 12 b. The customer has made at least one payment pursuant to that 13 settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other valid
14 contractual agreement between the customer and the creditor;
15 and
16 c. To the extent that debts enrolled in a service are renegotiated,
17 settled, reduced, or otherwise altered individually, the fee or 18 consideration either:
 - 19 i. Bears the same proportional relationship to the total fee
20 for renegotiating, settling, reducing, or altering the terms
21 of the entire debt balance as the individual debt amount
22 bears to the entire debt amount. The individual debt
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 amount and the entire debt amount are those owed at the
2 time the debt was enrolled in the service; or

- 3 ii. Is a percentage of the amount saved as a result of the 4 renegotiation, settlement, reduction, or alteration. The
5 percentage charged cannot change from one individual
6 debt to another. The amount saved is the difference
7 between the amount owed at the time the debt was 8 enrolled in the service and the amount actually paid to 9 satisfy the debt. 16 C.F.R. § 310.4(a)(5)(i).
10
12

13 65. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from misrepresenting
14 directly or by implication a seller's or telemarketer's affiliation with, or 15 endorsement or sponsorship by, any person or government entity. 16 C.F.R. §
16 310.3(a)(2)(vii).
17
18

19 66. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from misrepresenting
20 directly or by implication, any material aspect of any debt relief service, including,
21 but not limited to, the amount of money or the percentage of the debt amount that a
22 customer may save by using the service. 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(x).
23

24 67. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from initiating or causing 25 others to initiate outbound telephone calls to consumers who have registered their
26
27
28

1 telephone numbers on the National Do Not Call Registry. 16 C.F.R. §
2 310.4(b)(1)(iii)(B).

3
4 68. The FTC allows sellers, telemarketers, and other permitted
5 organizations to access the National Do Not Call Registry over the Internet at 6 telemarketing.donotcall.gov, to pay the fee(s) if required by the TSR, and to 7
8 download a list of numbers that are prohibited from being called.

9 69. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from calling any 10 telephone number within a given area code unless the seller on whose behalf the 11 call is made has paid the annual fee for access to the telephone numbers within that
12 area code that are included in the National Do Not Call Registry. 16 C.F.R. §
13
14 310.8.

15
16 70. Consumers who receive telemarketing calls to their registered
17 numbers can complain of National Do Not Call Registry violations the same way
18 they registered, through a toll-free telephone call or over the Internet at 19 donotcall.gov, or by otherwise contacting law enforcement authorities.

20
21 71. Pursuant to Section 3(c) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. §
22 6102(c), and Section 18(d)(3) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57a(d)(3), a violation of 23 the TSR constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice in or affecting commerce,
24 in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

VIOLATIONS OF THE TELEMARKETING SALES RULE

Count III

Advance Fee for Debt Relief Services

72. In numerous instances, in connection with the telemarketing of student loan debt relief services, Defendants have requested or received payment of a fee or consideration for debt relief services before:

- a. Defendants have renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other such valid contractual agreement executed by the customer; and
- b. The customer has made at least one payment pursuant to that settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other valid contractual agreement between the customer and the creditor.

73. Defendants’ acts or practices, as described in Paragraph 72 of this Complaint, are abusive telemarketing acts or practices that violate Section 310.4(a)(5)(i) of the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.4(a)(5)(i).

Count IV

Misrepresentation of Affiliation

74. In numerous instances, in connection with the telemarketing of student loan debt relief services, Defendants have misrepresented, directly or

1 indirectly, expressly or by implication, that they are affiliated with, or endorsed or
2 sponsored by, the government, government loan programs, or the Department of 3 Education.
4

5 75. Defendants’ acts and practices, as described in Paragraph 74 of this
6 Complaint, are deceptive telemarketing acts or practices that violate Section
7 310.3(a)(2)(vii) of the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(vii).
8

9 Count V

10 Material Debt Relief Misrepresentations

11
12 76. In numerous instances, in connection with the telemarketing of 13 student loan debt relief services, Defendants have misrepresented, directly or 14 indirectly, expressly or by implication, material aspects of their debt relief services,
15 including, but not limited to that consumers who purchase Defendants’ debt relief
16 services generally will have their monthly payments reduced or their loan balances
17 forgiven in whole or in part.
18

20 77. Defendants’ acts and practices, as described in Paragraph 76 of this
21 Complaint, are deceptive telemarketing acts or practices that violate Section
22 310.3(a)(2)(x) of the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(x).

Count VII
Failure to Pay Required Fee for Access to National Do Not Call Registry

79. In connection with telemarketing, Defendants initiated or caused others to initiate numerous outbound telephone calls to telephone numbers within a given area code when Defendants had not, either directly or through another person, paid the required annual fee for access to the telephone numbers within that area code that are included in the National Do Not Call Registry in violation of the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.8.

THE MORTGAGE ASSISTANCE RELIEF SERVICES RULE

80. In 2009, Congress directed the FTC to prescribe rules prohibiting unfair or deceptive acts or practices with respect to mortgage loans. Omnibus Act, § 626, 123 Stat. 678, as clarified by Credit Card Act, § 511, 123 Stat. 1763-64. Pursuant to that direction, the FTC promulgated the MARS Rule, 16 C.F.R. Part 322, all but one of the provisions of which became effective on December 29, 2010. Title X of the Dodd-Frank Act, 124 Stat. 1376, transferred the FTC's

1 rulemaking authority under the Omnibus Act, as amended, to the Consumer
2 Financial Protection Bureau (“CFPB”). On December 16, 2011, the CFPB
3 republished the MARS Rule as Regulation O, 12 C.F.R. Part 1015. Plaintiff
4 includes citations to the former codification for ease of reference.
5

6 81. The MARS Rule defines “mortgage assistance relief service provider”
7 as “any person that provides, offers to provide, or arranges for others to provide,
8 any mortgage assistance relief service” other than the dwelling loan holder, the 9 servicer of a dwelling loan, or any agent or contractor of such individual or entity.
10
11 12 C.F.R. § 1015.2, formerly codified as 16 C.F.R. § 322.2.
12

13 82. Since January 31, 2011, the MARS Rule has prohibited any mortgage
14 assistance relief service provider from requesting or receiving payment of any fee
15 or other consideration until the consumer has executed a written agreement
16 between the consumer and the consumer’s loan holder or servicer that incorporates
17 the offer that the provider obtained from the loan holder or servicer. 12 C.F.R.
18 § 1015.5(a), formerly codified as 16 C.F.R. § 322.5(a).
19
20

21 83. The MARS Rule prohibits any mortgage assistance relief service
22 provider from representing, expressly or by implication, in connection with the 23 advertising, marketing, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or performance of any 24 mortgage assistance relief service, that a consumer cannot or should not contact or 25
26
27
28

1 communicate with his or her lender or servicer. 12 C.F.R. § 1015.3(a), formerly
2 codified as 16 C.F.R. § 322.3(a).

3
4 84. The MARS Rule prohibits any mortgage assistance relief service
5 provider from misrepresenting, expressly or by implication, any material aspect of 6 any mortgage assistance relief service, including but not limited to:

7
8 a. the likelihood of negotiating, obtaining, or arranging any represented
9 service or result. 12 C.F.R. § 1015.3(b)(1), formerly codified as 16
10 C.F.R. § 322.3(b)(1); and

11
12 b. that a mortgage assistance relief service is affiliated with, endorsed or 13 approved by, or otherwise associated with any Federal, State, or local 14 government agency, unit, or department. 12 C.F.R.
15 § 1015.3(b)(3)(iii), formerly codified as 16 C.F.R. § 322.3(b)(3)(iii).

16
17 85. The MARS Rule prohibits any mortgage assistance relief service
18 provider from failing to place a statement in every general commercial 19 communication disclosing that (i) the provider is not associated with the 20 government and its service is not approved by the government or any lender, and 21 (ii) in certain cases, a statement disclosing that the lender may not agree to modify
22 a loan, even if the consumer uses the provider's service. 12 C.F.R.
23 §§ 1015.4(a)(1)-(2), formerly codified as 16 C.F.R. §§ 322.4(a)(1)-(2).
24
25
26
27
28

1 86. The MARS Rule prohibits any mortgage assistance relief service
2 provider from failing to place a statement in every consumer-specific commercial
3 communication (i) confirming that the consumer may stop doing business with the 4 provider or reject an offer of mortgage assistance without having to pay for the 5 services, (ii) disclosing that the provider is not associated with the government and 6 its service is not approved by the government or any lender, and (iii) in certain 7 cases, a statement disclosing that the lender may not agree to modify a loan, even if
8 the consumer uses the provider's service, and (iv) in certain cases, a statement
9 disclosing that if they stop paying their mortgage, consumers may lose their home
10 or damage their credit. 12 C.F.R. §§ 1015.4(b)(1)-(3) and (c); formerly codified as 11 16 C.F.R. §§ 322.4(b)(1)-(3) and (c).

12 87. Pursuant to the Omnibus Act, § 626, 123 Stat. 678, as clarified by the 13 Credit Card Act, § 511, 123 Stat. 1763-64 and amended by the Dodd-Frank Act,
14 § 1097, 124 Stat. 2102-03, 12 U.S.C. § 5538, and pursuant to Section 18(d)(3) of 15 the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57a(d)(3), a violation of the MARS Rule (Regulation O)
16 constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice in or affecting commerce, in
17 violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

VIOLATIONS OF THE MARS RULE

Count VIII

Advance Payment for MARS

88. In numerous instances, in the course of providing, offering to provide, or arranging for others to provide mortgage assistance relief services, Defendants ask for or receive payment before consumers have executed a written agreement between the consumer and the loan holder or servicer that incorporates the offer obtained by Defendants, in violation of the MARS Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R. § 1015.5(a).

Count IX

Prohibited Representations

89. In numerous instances, in the course of providing, offering to provide, or arranging for others to provide mortgage assistance relief services, Defendants, in violation of the MARS Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R. § 1015.3(a), have represented, expressly or by implication, that a consumer cannot or should not contact or communicate with his or her lender or servicer.

Count X

Material MARS Misrepresentations

90. In numerous instances, in the course of providing, offering to provide, or arranging for others to provide mortgage assistance relief services, Defendants,

1 in violation of the MARS Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R. § 1015.3(b)(1)-(4), have
2 misrepresented, expressly or by implication, material aspects of their services,
3 including, but not limited to:
4

- 5 a. Defendants' likelihood of obtaining mortgage loan
6 modifications for consumers that will make their payments
7 substantially more affordable; and 8
- 9 b. Defendants are affiliated with, endorsed or approved by, or 10 otherwise associated with:
11
- 12 i. the United States government,
 - 13 ii. any governmental homeowner assistance plan,
 - 14 iii. any Federal, State, or local government agency, unit, or 15 department,
 - 16
 - 17 iv. any non-profit housing counselor agency or program,
 - 18
 - 19 v. the maker, holder, or servicer of the consumer's dwelling
20 loan, or
21
 - 22 vi. any other individual, entity, or program.

Count XI

Failure to Disclose

91. In numerous instances, in the course of providing, offering to provide, or arranging for others to provide mortgage assistance relief services, Defendants have failed to make the following disclosures:

- a. in all general commercial communications –
 - i. “[Name of Company] is not associated with the government, and our service is not approved by the government or your lender,” in violation of the MARS Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R. § 1015.4(a)(1); and
 - ii. “Even if you accept this offer and use our service, your lender may not agree to change your loan,” in violation of the MARS Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R. § 1015.4(a)(2);
- b. in all consumer-specific commercial communications –
 - i. “You may stop doing business with us at any time. You may accept or reject the offer of mortgage assistance we obtain from your lender [or servicer]. If you reject the offer, you do not have to pay us. If you accept the offer, you will have to pay us [insert amount or method for

1 calculating the amount] for our services,” in violation of
2 the MARS Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R.

3 § 1015.4(b)(1);

4
5 ii. “[Name of company] is not associated with the 6 government, and our service is not approved by the 7 government or your lender,” in violation of the MARS
8 Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R. § 1015.4(b)(2);

9
10 iii. “Even if you accept this offer and use our service, your 11 lender may not agree to change your loan,” in violation
12 of the MARS Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R.

13 § 1015.4(b)(3); and

14
15
16 iv. “If you stop paying your mortgage, you could lose your 17 home and damage your credit,” in violation of the MARS
18 Rule (Regulation O), 12 C.F.R. § 1015.4(c).

19
20 CONSUMER INJURY

21
22 92. Consumers have suffered and will continue to suffer substantial injury
23 as a result of Defendants’ violations of the FTC Act, the TSR, and the MARS
24 Rule. In addition, Defendants have been unjustly enriched as a result of their 25 unlawful acts or practices. Absent injunctive relief by this Court, Defendants are 26
27
28

1 likely to continue to injure consumers, reap unjust enrichment, and harm the public
2 interest.

3 THIS COURT’S POWER TO GRANT RELIEF

4
5 93. Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), empowers this Court
6 to grant injunctive and such other relief as the Court may deem appropriate to halt
7 and redress violations of any provision of law enforced by the FTC. The Court, in 8 the exercise of its equitable jurisdiction, may award ancillary relief, including 9 rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies paid, and 10 the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies, to prevent and remedy any violation of any
11 provision of law enforced by the FTC.
12
13

14
15 94. Section 6(b) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6105(b) and 16 Section 626 of the Omnibus Act authorize this Court to grant such relief as the 17 Court finds necessary to redress injury to consumers resulting from Defendants’
18 violations of the TSR and the MARS Rule, including the rescission or reformation
19 of contracts, and the refund of money.
20
21

22 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

23
24 Wherefore, Plaintiff FTC, pursuant to Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15
25 U.S.C. §§ 53(b) and Section 6(b) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6105(b),
26 and the Court’s own equitable powers, requests that the Court:
27
28

1 A. Award Plaintiff such preliminary injunctive and ancillary relief as
2 may be necessary to avert the likelihood of consumer injury during the pendency
3 of this action and to preserve the possibility of effective final relief, including but 4 not limited to a temporary and preliminary injunction, asset freeze, appointment of 5 a receiver, an evidence preservation order, and expedited discovery.
6

7 B. Enter a permanent injunction to prevent future violations of the FTC
8 Act, the TSR, and the MARS Rule by Defendants;
9

10 C. Award such relief as the Court finds necessary to redress injury to 11 consumers resulting from Defendants' violations of the FTC Act, the TSR, and the 12 MARS Rule, including but not limited to, rescission or reformation of contracts,
13 restitution, the refund of monies paid, and the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies;
14 and
15
16

17 D. Award Plaintiff the costs of bringing this action, as well as such other
18 and additional relief as the Court may determine to be just and proper.
